GUIDANCE CENTER

THE DIRECTOR OF GUIDANCE COUNSELS A STUDENT

Learning about the individual student, helping him to understand himself, effecting changes in him and in his environment which will help him to grow and develop as much as possible are the goals of guidance. Guidance, thus, becomes a complex process. It must compass the total needs of the individual student, and it must be applicable to his educational, social, emotional, moral, health, advocational and leisure time needs.

The Guidance Department under the direction of Mr. Beamer has assumed its responsibility. A Guidance Committee consisting of representatives from the various departments of the school, and the librarian and primarly responsible for the program. Members of the counseling staff are: Mrs. Blair, Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Love, Miss Perkins, Mr. Finlay, and Mr. Gilliam.

YEARBOOK STAFF

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

MR. HARVEY A. FLESHMON
PRINCIPAL

TO THE CLASS OF 1962:

It is indeed a pleasure and privilege to have the honor of adding a few words to your splendid Yearbook.

"In these days when so many people feel that opportunities are limited, it is up to eac young person to answer the challenge and "face life courageously" ready to strike straight at the heart of anything that is keeping him from his best."

Make the most of yourself in every way; in health, in knowledge, in personality, and in character.

EIGHTH GRADE BOYS' PHYSICAL EDUCATION CLASS

Parents usually recognize physical education as an important part of education concerned with the growth and development of their boys and girls. Because it is a part of the total educational program it has the same goals that give purpose to all learning experiences. This means that physical education is really education through physical activities. It contributes to the mental, emotional, and social growth as well as to the physical.

Everyone needs physical activity to grow and develop properly. A person develops only as he exercises his body and mind, as he gains new ideas and skills, and as he applies his knowledge and skill effectively. Physical education has become an intergral part of the school program and is particularly important in helping each student to develop and maintain maximum physical efficiency; to develop useful skills to act in socially useful ways, and to enjoy wholesome physical recreation.

Citizens who possess vigor, strength, and character are the greatest resources of a nation in normal times. They are indispensable in times of emergency. In their accumulated strength the people guarantee the security of the United States of America and continuance of her leadership in world understanding.

Here at Carver High School physical education is offered at all grade levels.

Armand C. Wyatt, Physical Education Director

CARVER HAWKS COACHING STAFF

We the coaches of the mighty Carver Hawks are constantly at work to further develop the physical, mental, social, and moral character of our fine athletes.

We believe that, first and foremost a coach must be a good teacher. Good coaching is good teaching transferred from the classroom to the playfield. There are necessary attributes, such as dynamic, inspiring fearless, overt, relaxed, meticulous, sympathetic, understanding, hard, companionable and possessing unsurpassed determination; he must radiate warmth, and in his frankness must at times be frightening. The list is endless. Every coach has some of these qualities by nature, and the others must be cultivated. It is hardly necessary to write that the more of the aforementioned qualities we possess, the more tools are at our command to do the job.

Center . . . . . Armand C. Wyatt, Head Coach
Left . . . . . Johnnie C. Cheston, Ass't Coach
Right . . . . . Simon S. Poole, Ass't Coach

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society has 10 members who have exemplified ethical character, good scholarship, useful service and worth leadership.

Any member of this organization must be a member of the junior or senior class, must have a B average and must be a student of good moral character.

The members are Rebecca Jackson, Gloria Johnson, Rita King, Jean Turner, Thelma Winston, John Holmes, William Lewis, Pauline Minor, Irene Spotswood, and Franklin Taliaferro.

The best work is done by men whose consciences won't let them do inferior work.

-- Public Service

STUDENT PARTICIPATION ASSOCIATION

The Student Council consists of thirty-seven active members, two of whom hold offices in the district association and one who is state reporter.

The purpose of this organization is to form a more perfect and understanding student body, to create better relations between the administration and the students, to create a feeling of unity, and to further develop student leadership.

The officers are Sarah L. Wise, president; Clarence Washington, vice-president; Effie White, corresponding secretary; Grace Carpenter, treasurer; Paula Blair, chaplain; and Pauline Long, reporter. Mrs. V. P. Blair and Miss M. E. Evans are sponsors.

Success must be preceded with preparation; how you use today will determine how tomorrow will use you.

KNEELING: Robert Hunter, Marcellus Bumbrey, William Williams, James Bannister, Charles Holmes--Co-Captain, Clarence Snead, Daniel Holmes--Captain, Harry Mack, James Gray, Freddie Shanks.

The Carver Hawks Basketball Team is composed of those students who have a great interest in basketball and who possess certain basketball abilities. In order for a boy to become a member of the varsity basketball team he must excell in performance of basketball basic fundmental skills and must have satisfactory academic standings.

The boy who becomes a basketball player is taught, trained, and coached to further develop the basic fundamental basketball skills so that upon graduation from high school he may go on, if he still has the interest, to play college basketball.

We are proud of our athletes. We press upon our athletes high moral and ethical training. An athlete takes pride in his honorable position and he is expected to set a good example for others.
